Overview

Lindsay Tate Porter is from Frankfort, Kentucky and graduated Magna Cum Laude from Western Kentucky University (WKU) in December 2016 with a Bachelor's of Science in Agribusiness. While attending WKU, Lindsay served as Chapter President of her sorority, Alpha Delta Pi, and was selected Outstanding Agribusiness Student of the Year in 2016.

Upon graduation from WKU, Lindsay attended the Louis D. Brandeis School of Law at the University of Louisville and graduated Magna Cum Laude in May 2020. While attending the Brandeis School of Law, Lindsay clerked for an insurance defense firm in Middletown, Kentucky, participated in the American Inn of Court as a Pupil member, served as the Moot Court Board Executive Vice-President, and as a University of Louisville Law Review Associate Symposium Editor.

Also during her time at the Brandeis School of Law, Lindsay participated in the Intrastate Mock Trial competition against students from the University of Kentucky J. David Rosenberg College of Law and the Northern Kentucky University Salmon P. Chase College of Law winning Best Advocate of the competition in both 2018 and 2019. Lindsay obtained her limited student practice license, pursuant to Supreme Court Order 2.540, and participated in the Louisville Metro Public Defender Externship, specifically with the juvenile public defenders, and received the “Top Student” award for her work and performance in the Criminal Defense Trial Practice Court and Public Defender Externship.

Lindsay was also awarded the Robert C. Jayes Memorial Award for demonstrating academic merit, communication skills, and leadership qualities while attending the Brandeis School of Law. Lindsay’s Law Review Note: Judicious Use of Antibiotics: Biting the Hands that Feed Us, was selected for publication in the 58th Volume of the University of Louisville Law Review.

Lindsay is married to William Porter, and they reside in Bowling Green with their dog, Tillie Porter. Lindsay is thrilled to learn from and work alongside the distinguished group of lawyers at ELPO Law. Lindsay practices employment and education law, as well as family law.

GOOGLE REVIEWS:

“Lindsay Porter was extremely helpful and kind. I would highly recommend ELPO to anyone needing assistance and Lindsay specifically!” – Kirby Weaver

“Lindsay Porter was extremely engaged and responsive to my needs. While I understand that my situation was neither unique or unusual in the realm for the firm, Mrs. Porter treated my situation as if it were her top priority. That is wonderful service! I would recommend English, Lucas, Priest, & Owsley, LLP to everyone.” – Michael Tinsley
